Saint Carlo Acutis: St Carlo Acutis was born in 1991. He was diagnosed with leukaemia as a teenager. From a young age he had a special love for God, loving to pray the rosary, going to Holy Hours before and after Mass, and going to confession weekly. His parents were not devout, yet his faithfulness led to the conversion of his mother. He protected children at school from bullying and was also a programmer, building a website cataloguing Eucharistic miracles. He was also a lover of computer games and football. He died in October 2006 and was beatified on October 10 2020. His heart, considered a relic, is displayed in the reliquary in the Basilica of St. Francis in Assisi and he is buried there because of his love of St Francis (www.catholicnewsagency.com).
